Workforce Investment Act Youth Program

363-6101 ext. 236

The Workforce investment Act Youth Program is for youth ages 14 to 21 and is more than just a work program. Our objective is to provide eligible low-income youth with assistance in completing their educational goals and/or job training. Open 8:30-5:00 week days.

Youth Connections

360-6310

Youth Connections offers community based alternatives to detention or out-of home placement for new and repeat juvenile offenders

Youth Court

375-6805

The Juvenile probation department is a division of the 21st Judicial District and acts as a court within a court. All citations of youth to 18 years of age are handled through this office. In addition to monitoring substance abuse restitutions, fines and school progress of offenders, youth court also contracts for a community service program which allows youth to give back to their community.
